The American TESOL Institute board of directors announces that Mr. Liang Yongsheng has been promoted to President of ATI, China with effect from January 1, 2013. He will now be collaborating with Mr. Michael Wascom (President, ATI, USA).

Ms. Tang Xiping & Mr. Robert Warburton will be handing over their existing charge of South West China to Mr. Liang Yongsheng in one month. They will maintain charge of American TESOL Institute in Kunming. The authorization letter to Kunming Aurora Cultural Bridge Co., Ltd as ATI South West China is void. Mr. Robert Warburton is appointed head of Quality Assurance of Academics for ATI, China under authority of Liang Yongsheng and Michael Wascom.

Mr. Dong Huijiang will be handing over his existing charge of Beijing, China to Mr. Liang Yongsheng in one month. The authorization letter to Beijing Shibo Dongfang Education and Technology Co., Ltd is void. Mr. Dong Huijiang will maintain ATI's foreign teacher recruitment office in Beijing.

Mr. Liang Yongsheng was among four candidates shortlisted for the post of ATI, China, President, and has been selected after a rigorous round of selection process. His qualifications and experience, along with performance results, helped us make the correct choice.

I wish Liang Yongsheng all the best and success in his new role, and to continue our duty in China of providing quality education for teachers of English.

Kindest Regards.
Jonathan Lazarus,
Co-Founder, P.R., ATI, USA
